Small Group Discussion Questions
Better Together
Week of October 23rd

Get To Know Each Other

As always, spend some time checking in with the members of your group. Spend some time catching up and welcoming any new faces. You might share a high and a low of the last week.

Read Scripture

Take some time and read the Scriptures for today (John 13.1-17)

- What jumps out at you?
- What strikes you?
- What questions do you have?

Group Discussion Questions

1. Why did Jesus wash his disciples' feet?

- What was the practical significance of his washing their feet, rather than doing something else?

2. We do Knox Serves each year in obedience to Christ's command to serve others in the same spirit of humility with which he served us.

- For those of you who went on Knox Serves this year, what was it like?
- How did it make you feel?
- Where did you see God?

3. Pastor David shared a quote from Russian author Fyodor Dostoyevsky: 'Loving humility is marvelously strong, the strongest of all things, and there is nothing else like it.' Do you think that's true or false?

- How does his assertion fit with your life experience?
- How might humility be an expression of strength, rather than of weakness?

Action

Take a moment, and reflect: who is someone you can serve between now and Thanksgiving?

- What small, tangible act of service can you offer?
- This doesn't need to be anything big—it can be as simple as visiting someone who's lonely or picking up groceries for someone in need.

Closing

Share these moments in your group and pray about them.
