A Time to Connect With Each Other Throughout The Week

Questions Connected to our Scripture:

- How can you be more invitational to others?
- What do you think Jesus meant by “the harvest is great, but the workers are few?”
- Who are God’s workers?
- Why do you think there aren’t enough workers?

This Week’s Scripture:

Godly Play:

Ms. Kim teaches Godly Play during our Saturday Evening Worship. We hope you can join her sometime. If you would like to watch her lessons at home, you can follow her on YouTube by clicking here.

“Invested”

A Family Devotional

“Have you ever thought about what God sees when He looks at the world? Maybe He sees a big ball with little ants walking around? Maybe He sees a wall with a TV for each of us? Or maybe He sees a huge field full of ripe, orange pumpkins ready to be picked. Looking at Matthew 9: 35-38, I can imagine the world as a big field waiting to be harvested. Those of us who know and follow Jesus are the farmers who get to go and pick them pumpkins that God has ripened through the Light of the World and the Living Water.”

People need to hear God’s story. We are called, as Christians, to share the gospel and God’s love with others. So let’s get out their into the field, my dear friends!

Dear God,

Thank you for sending Jesus to walk on the earth. Thank you that he saw people and had compassion. Thank you for wanting to be our shepherd. Help us to see those around us as opportunities to serve You by being kind, helpful, and sharing the Good News. We love you. In Jesus’s Name, Amen.

A Conversational Quote:

What can you do to help God harvest?

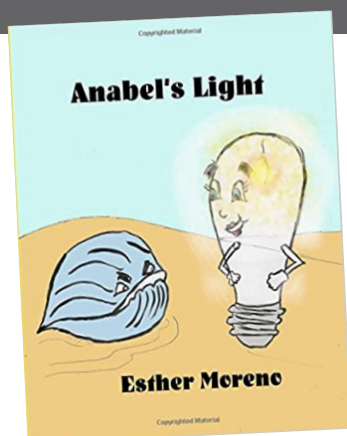

*How can you invest in Knox?
(Not necessarily $$)*

The harvest here is indeed great and the laborers are few and imperfectly fitted, without much grace for such work. And yet Grace can make a few feeble instruments the means of accomplishing great things—things greater even than we can conceive

Did you know?

There are some fun holidays this week:

- 11/15 Clean Your Fridge Day, Ntnl. Philanthropy Day
- 11/16 Ntnl. Fast Food Day
- 11/17 Homemade Bread Day, World Peace Day
- 11/20 Beautiful Day

Read Aloud...

This is a beautiful story titled, Anabel's Light, written by a dear friend Esther Moreno. It is a story about letting your own light shine. As we let our own light shine, we are shining the light that we were given by God. We are sharing our gifts with the world. We are sharing his love with others and the Good News! (Click on the picture of the book to hear the story).

Fun Questions:

- What is your favorite dinosaur?
- If you were an animal, what would you be?
- What is your favorite side on Thanksgiving?
- If it were up to you, what would you eat for breakfast?
- What do you want to invent?
- If you could rid the world of one thing, what would it be?
- How do you make someone happy?

Fun Activity:

Did you know that November 17th is Homemade Bread Day? Do you like to make homemade bread? We love to make banana bread in our house. Another family favorite is Italian Herb and Cheese Bread in our Breadmaker. How about you? Looking for something fun to do together, find a fun bread recipe and make it together as a family!

Join us for Kids in the Kitchen!

Please join us this Thursday for Kids in the Kitchen on November 18th! We will be back in the kitchen making lasagnes for our Young Adults and Leaders for their trip to Michigan next month! You can register on our Knox Website here. We hope you can join us!
