*Call to Worship

Leader: As young woman, Mary, waited nine months for the arrival of her son,

People: As live-on-the-edge John the baptizer waited for the arrival of one so worthy he did not even feel able to untie his shoes,

Leader: As live-in-the-shadows Jesus of Nazareth waited for the start of his public ministry as Rabbi and Lord,

People: We wait now, with expectant hearts and minds, for this opportunity to worship God.

Leader: The time has come! Let us worship!

Prayer of Confession

We are often incredibly stubborn, O Lord. We have entered the season in which your Light has been given to the world, your blessings have been poured out on the world, and yet most of what we think about are our own problems, our own needs and our own desires. Help us to desire you, Lord. Help us to yearn for your presence. Pour your baptismal waters over us again, cleansing us from our self-pity and arrogance. Nourish and heal us so we may joyfully serve you. Wash away our jealousy, greed, and all negative thoughts and behaviors that stand in the way of our truly being the people you have called us to be. We ask this in Jesus’ Name. Amen.
